Reasonable Accommodation for People with Disabilities

If you or any member of your household have a disability and as a result need any of the following in order to have an equal opportunity to apply to or live in our development, or participate in services and programs we offer, please let us know:

- A change in a rule, policy, procedure or service;
- A physical change or modification in your apartment, such as grab bars or lowering the cabinets;
- A specific type of unit such as one that is accessible to individuals with mobility impairments, visual impairments or hearing impairments;
- A physical change or modification in some other part of the housing site; and
- A preferred way for us to communicate with you or give you information, such as Braille, large print or using a hearing interpreter.

These kinds of changes are called reasonable accommodations. We will provide a requested reasonable accommodation if:

- your disability is obvious, or you can document that you have a disability;
- the nexus or connection between your disability and the need for the accommodation is obvious or you can document it; and
- your request does not pose an undue financial and administrative burden or fundamental change in the program, which means in simple language if it is not too expensive and too difficult to arrange or do, or does not require us to do something that the housing program is not designed to do or would prevent us from doing what we are required to do.

We will give you an answer as to whether we can provide the accommodation within ten (10) business days unless there is a problem getting the information we need, or unless you agree to a longer time. We will let you know if we need more information or documentation from you or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

If we turn down your request, we will explain the reasons. If you want, you may then give us information that addresses the reason why we turned down your request.

A REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM is available at the management office listed below. Let us know if you need help filling out the form or if you want to give us your request in some other way. Reasonable Accommodations may be requested orally or in writing. Please do not hesitate to contact the management office.

NOTE: All information you provide will be kept confidential and be used only to enable you to have an equal opportunity to apply to or enjoy your housing, including services and the common areas.
